PEEKSKILL, Saturday, September 8.

MY DEAR FRIENDS: I am obliged to you for your letter. I am sorry that my friends and my congregation are grieved by my Cleveland letter. That letter, however, has no just grounds whatever.

I have not left, and do not propose to leave, or to get out of the Republican party. I am in sympathy with its aims, and its great principles, and intend to do all I can to aid it. I used the liberty of criticising its policy in a single instance, and do what I could to secure what I believed, and still believe, would be a better one. I do not think the first have been, fully of the opinion that the Congress, excluding representation in Northern States, and the Constitution prescribing.

FROM HEART'S CONTENT.

The Cable of 1865 Successfully Laid, and the Electrical Current Perfect—Great Enthusiasm.

NEW YORK, September 8.—The following despatch was received from Heart's Content at 12:30 p. m. to-day:

HEART'S CONTENT, September 8.—Since Saturday morning, unbroken speech has followed the cable from Europe to this place, and the end of cable of 1865 on Saturday evening, at 4 o'clock, under a salute from the ships of war in the harbor and all demonstrations of joy from the people.

The electrical condition of this cable is most perfect, and messages are now being sent and received as fast as the Morse Eastern arrived at Henderson Bay, sixty-five miles from here, at 8 o'clock on Friday evening, when she was met by Her Majesty's ships Terrible, Lily and Margarita Stevenson, which accompanied her up the bay. The night was dark and wet, and everything went on smoothly. The Great Eastern sails on Sunday for England. The Medway also leaves on Sunday for the Gulf of St. Lawrence, with Messrs. Cyrus W. Field and A. M. Mackay on board, to lay a second cable from Port au Basques to Aspy Bay. The Medway is accompanied by the Terrible and Lily.

The Cable Ball comes off at St. Johns on Tuesday night. Mr. Field cannot attend. When the core end of the cable was brought to the telegraph house, Mr. Canning, Clifford and Field were severally asked by the crews from the men-of-war, aided by the civilians, to hold over the heads of the people, and cheered vociferously.

FROM WASHINGTON.

[Special Despatch to the Chicago Tribune.]

WASHINGTON, September 9.

THE PRESIDENTIAL CIRCUIT.

Thus far over five thousand individual responses have been received to the call for the Philadelphia Convention, about three thousand of those being from private soldiers. An additional State organization, numbering many thousands, has been effected in Kentucky, and resolutions adopted through their local and general officers, forwarded their cordial endorsement. Twelve regiments of the conservative organization called on "Boys in Blue," will be represented. All indications point to the largest demonstration yet made in the country, not excepting the late one in loyal Philadelphia, Rev. Grac.ville Sharpe, who has secured the chaplaincy on the part of the army, and Dr. Boynton, Chaplain of the House of Representatives, and also Assistant Engineer of the Naval Academy, has been invited to officiate as chaplain on the part of the navy.

AFFAIRS IN FLORIDA.

A regular officer, stationed in Florida, writes to a friend in this city as follows: "It is necessary to come here to understand the condition of affairs thoroughly. I am convinced that the so-called good understanding and sympathy are far from existing between the people here and the troops. I have already made two expeditions to arrest those who fired upon negroes and killed them, and to-morrow I am going on another, in a case where a sixty-seven years old, was beaten nearly to death and his house pillaged by ex-rebels, on the pretence that he was a Union man."

THE CLEVELAND CALL.

In the matter of the call for the Cleveland Convention, still another case has come to light where an officer's name was put on without consulting with him, simply because it was known that he had lately received an office. It begins to appear as if ascertainment of that character was not essential in the preparation of the list of signers.

Miscellaneous.

A FEW WORDS OF COMMON SENSE.

How few there are who are not subject to some affection of the lungs or respiratory organs, who, by neglecting premonitory symptoms, aggravate the complaint, until disease strikes its shafts, causing irreparable torture of the patient, and anxiety and distress to friends. "Only a cold!" "A slight sore throat!" is the heedless remark of many when so afflicted. Yes, "Only a cold," was the thoughtless expression of thousands whom death has snatched for his prey.

Forewarned—Forearmed! should be the motto forever in the minds of all subject to Coughs, Colds, Catarrh, or Influenza. Words of advice should be heeded by all suffering from Asthma, Bronchitis, Consumption. Relief is within their reach, and, if neglected, fatal consequences ensue—a life of misery—a daily, hourly struggle for existence. A contest to which there can be but one victor—Death!

Trust it not upon the strongest mind to think of the result caused by neglect? Then why delay? What excuse can be offered, when timely warning is sounded in your ears? When the danger is pointed out, why so avoid it? MARSDEN'S PECTORAL BALM has been used with success in nearly a million of cases, and is endorsed by the Medical Faculty as the most prompt and efficacious remedy that scientific research has discovered, to relieve and cure all cases of Coughs, Colds, Influenza and Consumption, if the case is not beyond all hope. Even when the sufferer is in the last stages he will find relief by using this preparation. One bottle will convince the most incredulous, that the merits of this preparation are by no means exaggerated; in fact—fall far short of the eulogies bestowed upon it by thousands who have been cured by the timely use. A guarantee accompanies each bottle, and dealers are instructed to refund the purchaser's money when this preparation fails to relieve.
